- Safeguarding training and dealing with safeguarding issues (Safeguarding Officer)
- Travel whilst representing the Association will be at the discretion of the Principal Officers and should be agreed in advance.

If the venue of the meeting is more than 100 miles from home (by the shortest route), and the start time of the meeting/event is before 10am, budget overnight accommodation and breakfast may be claimed at cost, to a maximum of £100, for the night before the start of the meeting. This must be supported by a receipt.

Parking overnight and at the meeting venue may be claimed.

Reimbursement of refreshment costs/subsistence (Drinks, lunch and dinner) can be applied for up to the value of £30 per day whilst attending the CCCBR AGM. Receipts to be supplied to the Treasurer.

Training Courses

The cost of Association or District training courses (excluding catering) may be met from the Association Training Fund including out of pocket expenses as defined below.

If any individual Officer or Member of the Association is asked to organise a training course for a specific tower or group of people, or to attend practices regularly to assist with progress, the tutor/helper should enter into a private agreement with the tower and ringers involved if reimbursement is desired.

Officers (including District Officers and General Committee) Expenses

Secretarial expenses (such as bulk copying, paper, printer ink, envelopes and postage) may be claimed from the Treasurer on production of relevant receipts.

Production and postal distribution costs for newsletters and event publicity may also be claimed by submitting the relevant receipts to the Treasurer, or by asking the supplier to submit the invoice directly to the Treasurer for direct payment. Use of email and the KCACR website is actively encouraged to minimise these expenses.

Association Social Events

The price of the event ticket should be set to recover the cost of the event expenses as a minimum.

If supplier payment is required in advance of tickets being sold (e.g. hall hire, band/music, food orders, equipment hire, copying and printing), these costs may be claimed from the Treasurer in advance of the event on production of a receipt, or an invoice sent to the Treasurer for direct payment to the supplier.

All ticket monies should be given to the Treasurer for banking or should be paid directly into the Association bank account. Expenses should be paid from ticket receipts only with the prior agreement of the Treasurer.

AGM expenses

Costs incurred for the AGM for hall and equipment hire, copying and printing will be paid by the Association. These costs may be claimed from the Treasurer on completion of the Association Event Form
