

Kent Young Ringers & Kent MINI-Ringers: Parental Consent & GDPR form 2024/25

Practices, outings and Quarter peal attempts for Kent Young Ringers and Kent MINI-Ringers are held throughout the year. District-focussed practices are also held. These are all organised and run by the Youth Officer and / or District Youth Coordinators. Details of all events are published in the Annual Programme, on the KCACR website, the Kent Young Ringers' and MINI-Ringers' Facebook & Instagram pages and emailed to Parents/Carers and young ringers.

The KCACR would like to keep you informed of ringing activities suitable for Kent Young and MINI-Ringers. The privacy of all Kent Young and MINI-Ringers is important and your consent is needed to communicate with you about ringing and ringing activities, in accordance with KCACR Safeguarding and Privacy policies which can be found at <https://kcacr.org.uk/association/safeguarding/resources/>

The Youth Officer will store, use and erase the information provided on this form, in compliance with GDPR guidelines.

Please complete and return this form and confirm your consent in the Yes / No options below. This covers practices, quarter peal attempts, outings during school holidays and team practices for regional and national youth contests. A separate permission form will be necessary for participation in actual contests. Note: All activities will be run in accordance with the KCACR Health & Safety policy:
